

Sit down, shut up

That jolt everyone felt was our Founding Fathers collectively rolling over in their graves in response to Supervisor Gloria Molina's motion and to the 3-2 vote that passed it.

No amount of convincing from Supervisor Antonovich, Supervisor Yaroslavsky or members of the public could convince the other supervisors that the motion giving the supervisors the power to decide what constitutes "too many items" for public comment and therefore "disruptive."

And we thought we had the USA Patriot Act to fear; instead, we have the Molina Resolution.
